

TrapD

Honeytrap solutions which provide additional security protection designed to trap a hacker into a decoy system thus unknowingly revealing it's modus operandi

- Provides in house threat intelligence collection mechanism
- Enhances OT + ICS + IT security

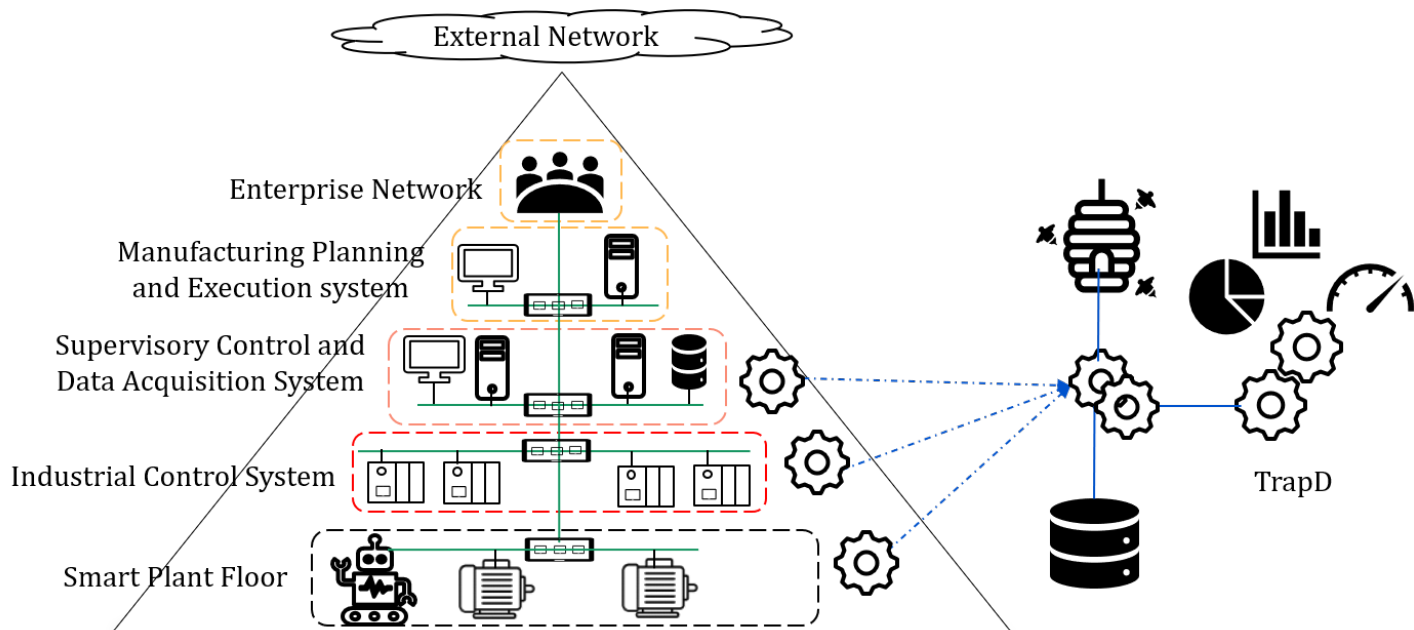

Figure: System configuration of the proposed solution

Deployed within the network, TrapD acts like an actual system, waits for requests and responds accordingly, Keeps malicious actor engaged by serving several vulnerabilities incorporated intentionally.

Features

Flexible deployment either at intranet or on the Internet, Continuous monitoring, Near real time notification, Scalable up to 36 subnets 108 decoys 200 concurrent clients.